Holidays: It is in the best interests of your daughter that family holidays are not taken during term time, as absence during this time will affect your daughter's progress.

Where this is unavoidable, written permission must be requested, before booking the holiday so that any issues related to absence can be addressed.

Be advised that the DfES recommend that no more than a total of 10 days holiday are taken in any one year.

It is the responsibility of your daughter to catch up on all work missed.
